

Wine Tours

I regularly organise wine tours to the French wine regions (and sometimes elsewhere). Travelling in wine country is the best and most enjoyable way of learning about wine, how it is made, how to taste it and to appreciate it more. Meeting the producers is a captivating experience that can be anything from an insight into a small family enterprise with a passionate wine maker talking about his wines to an impressive visit to an industrial installation with the latest technical equipment and marketing resources. We always travel in small groups, typically 12-18 persons, to guarantee a personal experience. We translate from French as needed.

Currently planned tours:

- Southern France: Rhône, March 3-7, 2004
- Bourgogne - Côte d'Or, April 21-25, 2004
- Northern Rhône: Côte Rôtie, Saint-Joseph, Hermitage,... May 12-16, 2004
- Bordeaux: September 15-19, 2004
- Catalonia (Barcelona): September 29/9 - October 3, 2004
- Provence: October 13-17, 2004

Custom designed tours

I can create a wine tour specifically to your requirements, for you and a group of your friends / colleagues / business associates / customers / ... The tours can be focused on wine only or can be combined with other things: golf, cultural visits, three-star restaurants, gastronomic visits (cheese making, foie gras producer, oyster farm, sausage and ham production) etc. all depending on where we are.
